Samaritan's Purse is a nondenominational evangelical Christian organization providing spiritual and physical aid to hurting people around the world. As an international relief organization, Samaritan's Purse cares for the victims of war, poverty, natural disasters, disease and famine around the world. As such, our Disaster Assistance Response Team staff and volunteers necessarily and frequently work in harsh, hostile and dangerous settings. These environments present many challenges, such as wide-spread violence, little or no available health care, and exposure to various health and safety risks, severe weather conditions, limited housing alternatives, and obstacles to travel. Taking into consideration any long-term or ongoing health issues and the limitations of available health care, would you be able to serve on a Disaster Assistance Response Team? Yes No	Are there specific months that you are more available for deployment? If so, which? Are there any dates there are exceptions to your availability? What is your level of comfort with the following?
